This fee includes registration fee and first inspection — Second inspections are $50.00; 3rd or more $100.00.

The fees for multi-family buildings considers that the inspections are done at the same time. Additional fees are charged if units are inspected separately.

It is the property owners or agents responsibility to make sure an adult is present at the scheduled time of inspection to allow the inspection entry. If the inspector arrives for an inspection and is not able to perform the inspection because no-one is home, or the occupant does not hear the inspector, there will be a $35.00 fee charged to reschedule the inspection.

The owner must reside within 25 miles of the City, or designate a local agent who must reside or do business within 25 miles from the City with a local address and telephone number.

The City has no obligation to send notices regarding expiring certificates, over-due re-inspections, late fees, registration fees, etc. The owner or agent is required to keep track of the status of rental units in the process.

Suspension or revocation of license

If the building official determines that any person has failed to comply with this chapter, or any applicable city or state code or ordinances, the building official may suspend or revoke the license held by that person.

Action to enforce compliance with the codes and ordinances may include the city correcting the violation and charging the property owner cost plus 10%.

Owner or Agent must file a renter's report with building department (form available on website or at city hall) New section added to ordinance regarding occupant disruptive conduct (see ordinance for details)

Fees may be changed from time to time by the City Council.
